Summary

Dynamic Media Professional with a Decade of Expertise

With over a decade of immersive experience across various facets of the media industry, I am on the lookout for my next exciting project where I can continue to craft captivating and fresh content. My most recent achievements have been with SVT, Sweden's premier streaming platform, and my portfolio extends to encompass both Nordic and international productions, spanning genres from fiction, documentary, film, to commercials.

Specializations:

 Creative Development: Proficient in conceiving and nurturing innovative concepts, I possess a keen ability to transform ideas into engaging narratives that resonate with diverse and discerning audiences.

Production Expertise: My skill set encompasses the entire production spectrum, including casting, directing, and producing. I have a proven track record of successfully helming projects from inception to completion.

Noteworthy Achievements:

"Robotella" Miniseries (SVT Play): As the writer, director, and producer of the upcoming miniseries "Robotella," scheduled for premiere in September 2023, I have displayed my prowess in crafting a compelling story that promises to captivate viewers.

Netflix's "Young Royals" (Seasons 1 and 2): I served as an Assistant Director and Second Unit Director for the popular Netflix series "Young Royals," contributing to its success and growth over two seasons.

"Ruset" (Sweden's First TikTok Series): As an Assistant Director for Sweden's pioneering TikTok series, "Ruset," I played a pivotal role in breaking new ground in the ever-evolving world of digital content.

Creative Producer (SVT Play): My responsibilities have also extended to conceptualizing and executing several groundbreaking formats for SVT Play, further reinforcing my versatility and creativity.

I thrive on the art of storytelling, the power of visual expression, and the challenge of engaging audiences across various mediums. If you're seeking a dynamic m
